

Camilla Werl

your go to person environmental topics and mangrove restoration

Background:

Master of Science in Applied Limnology

Bachelor's degree in Landscape Architecture and Landscape Planning

University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna

Working as a Mangrove Project Manager

- Management of Mangrove Reforestation Projects in Kenya, Senegal, and Micronesia;
- Preparing annual monitoring reports of all projects, including social impacts, biomonitoring, and soil sampling;
- Biodiversity measurements with eDNA;
- Focus on climate change mitigation, social impact and sustainable development.

Professional and Personal Interests:

I am passionate about traveling, working, and networking in the EU and internationally and protecting nature and biodiversity by linking it to bioeconomy.

Bioeconomy Youth Ambassadors

The Voice of Youth

camilla.werl@vlinderclimate.com

Camilla Werl

European Commission