EIC Seals of Excellence: Key reminders

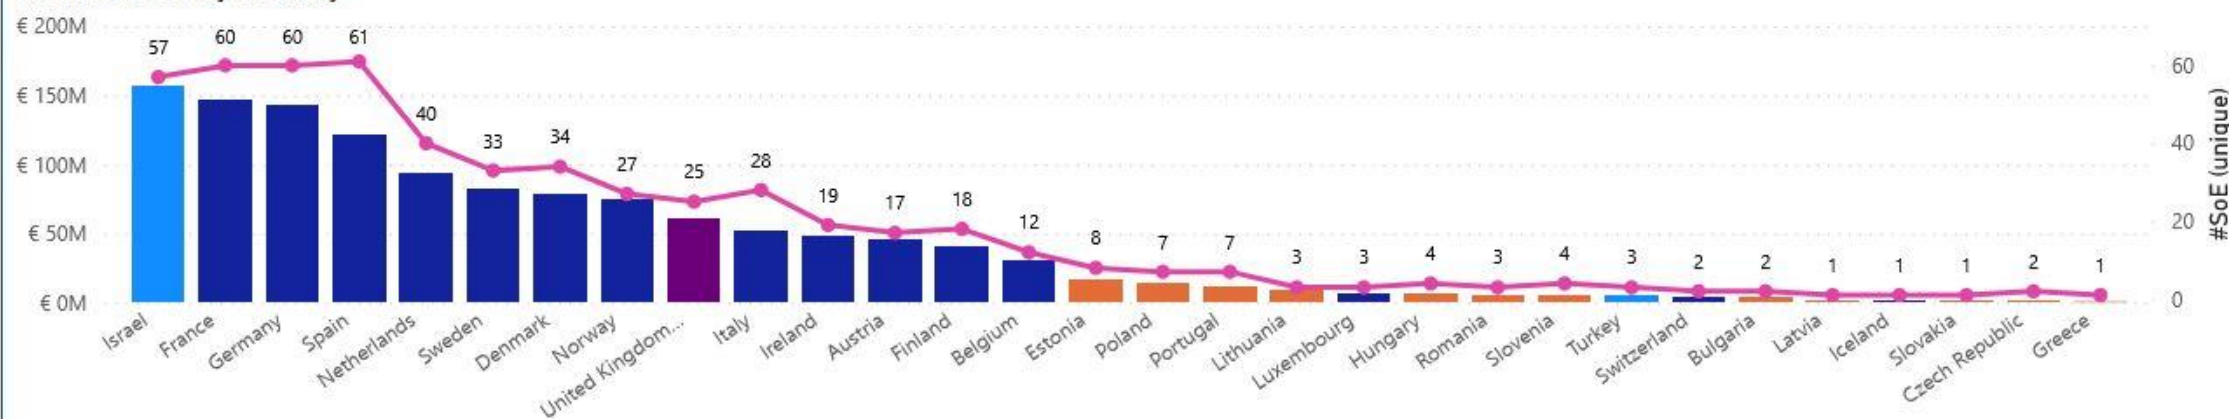

- The EIC Accelerator and EIC Transition SoEs are awarded following highly rigorous, multi-step evaluation to highly innovative companies with potential to scale up.
- Companies must give consent to share data to be eligible for EIC SoE (for limited set of data, e.g. contact details, abstract of the proposal, the amount of financial support requested).
- EIC SoEs receive access to EIC Business Acceleration Services (coaching, events, partnering, etc)
- Enterprise Europe Network (EEN) supports SoEs to secure other sources of funding

682 EIC Accelerator applicants eligible for SoEs (82 of them were funded by EIC at later cut off)

Key changes planned for 2024

- In case of a “No Go” at the jury interview phase, applicants will immediately receive a rejection letter and where eligible be awarded the Seal of Excellence;
- EIC Community platform will be now available not only to EIC Awardees but also to SoE companies;
- SoE companies will have access to wider range of services, provided by the EIC Ecosystem Partners,

Thank you!
